

By the Counsell of Virginea.

Seing it hath pleased God, after such hard successe, and the manifold impediments knowne to the world, that now by the Wisdom and industry of the Lord Gouernor settled in Virginea, the state and busynesse of the English Plantation there succeedeth with hope of a most prosperous event, and that therefore it is resolued and almost in a readinesse, for the further benefit and better settling of the said Plantation, to make a new supply of men, and all necessarie provissons, in a Fleet of good Ships, vnder the conduct of Sir Thomas Gates and Sir Thomas Dale Knights, and for that it is not intended any more to burden the action with vagrant and vnnescessarie persons: this is to giue notice to so many honest and industrious men, as Carpenters, Smiths, Coopers, Fisheremen, Tanners, Shoomakers, Shipwrights, Brickmen, Gardeners, Husbandmen, and labouring men of all sorts, that if they repaire to the house of Sir Thomas Smith in Philpot lane in London, before the end of this present moneth of Januarie, the number not full, they shall be entertained for the Voyage, vpon such termes as their qualitie and fitnesse shall deserue.

Imprinted at London for William Welby, 1611.
